A beautiful day greeted buyers at the second Seedstock Plus Female Showcase Sale. The top selling lot at $5,450 was a spring pair from Hart Farms of Kansas City, Kan. The spring bred cow, Miss Rupert Girl 027P52 sold to David VanWinkle of Neosho for $2,350, while the open heifer at side, Memphis Minnie T23 brought $3,100 from David Whelchel of Fortville, Ind.

RUMG Lady Rita R16 from Rumfelt Gelbvieh of Conway was the next high selling lot at $4,150. The homozygous black Balancer sold bred to BTBR "Monsoon" 3002N and went home with Chris Garoutte of Battlefield.

A spring pair at $3,650 earned the next high selling slot. White Brothers Gelbvieh of Topeka, Kan., consigned the five-year-old daughter of Mr. Echo and sold her to Williams Gelbvieh of Harrison, Ark., for $2,150. Her JBOB Carolina 3956L ET heifer calf brought $1,500 and sold to Probert Gelbvieh of Mansfield.

Following the Seedstock Plus Showcase Sale, Justamere Ranch hosted its mature cowherd dispersal. A black Balancer female topped the offering at $4,000. This three-year-old old female had a DNA Tenderness Score of a 9 with Igenity and she sold to a partnership between Rogers Valley Gelbvieh Farm of Mendon and Sunview Acres of Russellville.

A cherry red two-year-old heifer and her heifer calf at side combined to be the next high selling lot at $2,950. The cow, VV's Rogue 263 R05 sold to Tom Elgin of Fair Grove for $2,050. The heifer calf, Justamere Joy 704T, sold to Ethan Bigger of Media, Ill., for a junior project.

Rounding out the top sellers was a five-year-old daughter of JBOB Carolina Fortune 2564J ET that sold to Kyle Becker of Mooreland, Ind., for $2,800.

Volume buyer for the day was Rockin' U Ranch of Richmond.
