Schroeder Ranch of Sioux Falls, S.D. held its 10th annual bull sale in Mitchell, S.D. on a beautiful spring day. Little did everyone realize that the following three weekends would bring record-breaking spring snowstorms. Repeat buyers recognized the quality that Schroeder Ranch offers year after year. New buyers from Canada to Montana also recognized that Schroeder Ranch continually measures the performance qualities of their bulls so that the buyers can manage the information.

The high selling lot was Lot 9, a red purebred son of KLBF King of the Hill “Hank” son sold to Unger Land & Livestock, Olds, Alberta for $6,000.

Lot 6 and 16 both brought a bid of $3,700 and both are black Balancer bulls. Lot 6, a Bon View New Design 1407 son, sold to Jason Camp, Bozeman, Mont. Lot 16, a Bon View New Design 878 son, went to Scott Christensen of Flandreau.

Lot 18, also a black Bon View New Design 1407 son, sold for $3,400 to Jason Camp. Jason also purchased for $3,200 the Lot 15 River Hills Kahuna 175M Balancer son.

Dan Prunty of Hartford purchased Lot 1, another Bon View New Design 1407 son, for $3,300. Prunty also bought the high selling black purebred bull, Lot 23, for $3,500. Lot 23 is a son of SGRI P107 and boasted an 18.6 inch ribeye.

Selling for $3,200 was the Lot 5 black Balancer son of SAF Connection. Poker City Ranch, Agenda, Kan., was the buyer. Brian Winter of Wessington purchased the Lot 47 black Balancer son of XXB Big ‘N Rich 911P ET for $3,200.
