

2007 Clemson Bull Test & Heifer Sale
February 3, 2007
Blackville, S.C.

1	Senior Gelbvieh Bull	$1,150
5	Junior Gelbvieh Bulls	$1,200
4	Senior Balancer Bulls	$1,562
2	Junior Balancer Bulls	$1,850
52	Total (all breeds) Bulls	$1,975
42	Commercial Heifers	$890

The 2007 Clemson Bull Test Sale saw buyers from four states. The top selling bull for the day was a senior Angus bull that brought a $5,100 bid.

Top Selling Balancer Bull: $2,100—Randall Farms of Seneca consigned this Bon View New Design 878 son that posted the top ADG ratio of 125 and the top WDA ratio of 108 among the junior Balancer bulls. Shields Cattle Farm of Columbus, N.C., was the buyer.

Top Selling Senior Balancer: $1,700—Broad River Gelbvieh consigned a BTI Extra 2106K ET son that sold to Counts Brothers of Kinards.

Next High Seller: $1,650—Pleasant Oak Farm sold this son of Sitz Alliance 6595 to Shirley Farm of Townville.