

6th Annual Kansas Pick of the Herds Sale

November 25, 2006

Salina, Kan.

Auctioneer: Ronn Cunningham

Sale Manager: Cattlemen's Connection

20	Gelbvieh Open Heifers	$2,560
9	Balancer Open Heifers	$2,556
5	Bred Balancer Females	$2,140
5	Bred Gelbvieh Females	$2,140
3	Cow-Calf Pairs	$2,400
42	Total Breeding Lots	$2,448
2	Show Steer Prospects	$1,600
1	Flush Opportunity	$4,000
2	Embryo Packages	$1,100

A tremendous crowd was on hand for the annual Kansas Gelbvieh Association sale. All of the open heifer calves were halter broke and ready to go.

Topping the offering at $7,000 was an entry from September Farms of Nebraska. This full sib to WHIT's Love Child sold to Shiana Meyers of Hughesville, Mo.

Cooper Gelbvieh of Burdett consigned the next high seller at $6,500, ELC Miss Wildfire, a black SLC Freedom daughter. Dromgoole's Heaven of Texas picked a great one to add to their herd.

Two lots tied at $4,000 for the next high sellers. Lot 28, a red Balancer open heifer from Overmiller Gelbvieh of Smith Center, created a stir. This TBP Ravishing Rob 113 daughter found a new home with Kleinschmidt Gelbvieh of Nebraska. Butler Creek Farms of Milton, Tenn., offered a flush opportunity on JBOB "Miss Lulu" 5498P. J-Bob Farms of North Carolina won the bid to flush this JBOB Carolina Hero 4659M ET daughter.

Other top selling lots:

$3,600: Lot 5 from Raile Gelbvieh of St. Francis, a TAU Mr Freedom 920 175P ET purebred Gelbvieh, sold to Kayla Jarvis of Phillipsburg.

$3,500: Lot 26 from Bar M Ranch of Stockton, an XXB Titus 880K purebred Gelbvieh female, sold to Kale Kendrick of Palmyra, Mo.

$3,500: Lot 29 from Poker City Ranch of Agenda, a Cherokee Canyon Balancer female, sold to Dromgoole's Heaven of Texas.

$3,300: Lot 7 from Red Maple Gelbvieh of Jamestown sold to Hilltop Haven of Strange Creek, W. Va. Hilltop Haven also bid $3,000 to own BAG Miss Nagurski, Lot 10, from Bar Arrow Cattle Company.

$3,000: Lot 15 from Stock-Wood Gelbvieh of Stockton sold a RUP Ruppel Yukon 301P daughter to CV Gelbvieh of Portis.