Despite the harsh winter weather in southern Colorado, a nice crowd was on hand for the Seedstock Plus High Altitude Bull Sale at the Southern Colorado Livestock Sale facility.

Topping the sale for the day was a Balancer bull consigned by J&D Kerstiens of Jasper, Ind. JDKG Kerstiens 350R was sired by ALC H6-N334 out of a Flying H Exclusive dam. Steve Rzepka of Fairplay bid $4,250 for this homozygous black, double polled bull.

Larry Dutson of Mohogany Hollow Gelbvieh in Utah took home a homozygous black, double polled Balancer bull for $4,200. RBEC New Design 681S ET, a Bon View New Design 1407 son, came from Clayton Cattle Company.

The high selling Angus bulls for the day were Bon View New Design 1407 sons. CLTN Bon View New Design 613 consigned by Clayton Cattle Company of Monte Vista and THR Design 657 consigned by T-Heart Ranch of Center and both sold for $4,000 to Tri Lazy W Ranch of Nathrop.

Clayton Cattle Company also had the next high selling Angus bull with another Bon View New Design 1407 son. Tri Lazy W Ranch of Nathrop bid $3,500 to keep these sons together.

T-Heart Ranch consigned a homozygous black, double polled Ruppel Gigolo son out of an N Bar Emulation EXT daughter. McKinley Farms of McLoud, Okla., bid $3,800 to own the bull.

Sandy Knoll Farm of Kansas consigned the top selling Gelbvieh bull at $2,400. Tom Deakins of EX Corp in Craig took home this homozygous black, double polled JBOB Carolina Fortune son.

McKinley Farms consigned the next high selling Gelbvieh bull, a homozygous black, double polled son of RED Major. Don Larsen of LaJara was the winning bidder at $2,100.
