Gelbvieh Junior National Show Boasts Top Quality Entries

The 2005 American Gelbvieh Junior Association (AGJA) Rocky Mountain Classic is on the books as a great success, despite the hot temperatures. With temperatures hovering in the upper 90s, Jim Pipkin of Springfield, Mo., evaluated the Market Steer Show and the Bred & Owned Bull Show, while Dennis Alsop of Rogers, Ark., evaluated the female show.

Taking home the Grand Champion Female award was Britney Volek of Highmore, S.D., with EGL P155, a March 29, 2004 daughter of EGL Fosters L017 ET. Volek first won Champion Spring Yearling honors with her heifer on the way to the championship drive.

Sliding into the Reserve Champion Female slot is DBCW Corianne ET 405P and her owner, Emilie Bibb of Mason, Texas. This September 3, 2004 daughter of BTI Red Alert 2077K first earned Champion Senior Heifer Calf honors.

Victoria Carroll of Armuchee, Ga., made the most of her last year of eligibility in junior Gelbvieh programs by taking home Grand Champion Bred & Owned Female honors and the Tony Hayek Memorial Award. Her entry VAC Classy Lady F706, is a nine-year-old daughter of DCSF Post Rock Black Savvy, and first won Champion Cow-Calf honors.

Emily Griffiths of Kendallville, Ind., earned Reserve Champion Bred & Owned Female honors with GGGE 3G Cowgirl Persistence 475P, an April 8, 2004 daughter of SLC Freedom 178F ET. Griffiths also won Grand Champion Bred & Owned Bull honors with GGGE 3G Private Eye 449P. Private Eye is a February 2004 son of SLC Freedom 178F ET.

In the Reserve Champion Bred & Owned Bull slot was Megan Rea of Berthoud, Colo., with RTRM Headline 101P, a February 2004 son of JRI Extra Exposure 285L71 ET.

Grace Hammer of Wallace, Kan., repeated her accomplishment of last year and won Grand Champion Market Steer honors with her steer, Shrek. This entry tipped the scales at 1,252 pounds. Justin Taubenheim of Amherst, Neb., earned Reserve Champion Market Steer honors with his entry, Yao, weighing 1,430 pounds.

On the next page are the division winners from the female show. The listing includes the animal's name, exhibitor, exhibitor's hometown, and animal's sire. The Market Steer and Bull Shows do not have division winners, just overall winners.
